Allergies, intolerances, asthma or atopic eczema? Here you can find support in Switzerland aha! Swiss Allergy Centre is a centre of excellence for allergies, intolerances, asthma and atopic eczema. It is a foundation and committed to the health and quality of life of those affected. This information sheet lists offers from our network.

Medical help

Depending on the disease pattern there are different specialists in Switzerland.

- Allergies: Doctors specialising in allergology
- Intolerances & gastrointestinal complaints: Doctors specialising in gastroenterology
- Atopic Eczema & Skin Disease: Doctors specialising in dermatology
- Asthma: Doctors specialising in allergology or pneumology

To find your nearest specialist, go to www.doctorfmh.ch (select the medical speciality and choose a canton or enter a post code or place). Other contact points are the Swiss university and cantonal hospitals (list on www.aha.ch/links).
